

Characterisation in the short story
Tutor: Beccy Stirrup

Workshop Outline

This workshop examines character in short stories, the tone and flavour of the form itself, and the characters that populate it.

This is ideal for anyone who loves short stories and wants to develop specific skills in this area. You will look at some examples of short stories, and you will begin to develop our own writing. So be prepared to have a go, and enjoy it.