

Travel Writing

Bronwin Patrickson and Beccy Stirrup, University of Leeds

Do you love to travel? Want to learn how to write up your travel stories so that people will want to read more?

In this collaboratively delivered course you will learn how to use techniques of journalism and fiction writing to research, write and publish engaging records of your travel experiences. You will also learn how to collaborate remotely with other writers as the last class will be an online conference where you can get feedback on your writing via the internet. Whether you want to write a blog for friends, or pitch stories to magazine editors this course will take you through the process step by step.

The course will take a hands-on approach to travel writing, with practical exercises in class each week, opportunities for feedback on your work from your peers and the tutor, as well as the chance to read and gain inspiration from some outstanding examples of travel writing.

Dates: Monday 6th - 27th June
